

WREN 1992 Conference Agenda

Best Western Heritage Inn
434 Valley View Rd., Ashland, OR 97520

Wednesday, May 13th

7:00 PM

Reception, Heritage Inn. Hosted by California Department of Health Services

Thursday, May 14th

9:00AM-9:30

Welcome and Introductions

Daniel Smith, Environmental Epidemiology and Toxicology Program, California Department of Health Services

9:30-10:15

Respiratory illness among workers at a new municipal solid waste compost plant

Michael Heumann, Office of Health Status Monitoring, Oregon Health Division

10:15-11:00

Health and odor complaint surveillance during a hazardous waste site excavation

Martin Kharrazi, Environmental Epidemiology and Toxicology Program, California Department of Health Services

11:00-11:15

Break

11:15-12:00

Racial misclassification of American Indians on the Oregon Injury Registry

Jonathan Sugarman, Indian Health Service Epidemiology Program

12:00-1:30

Lunch

1:30-2:15

Pediatric Lead Survey, Snohomish County

Diane Gordon, Snohomish Health District

2:15-3:00

Protocol for a study of blood lead levels in children living close to lead facilities in Los Angeles County

Amy Rock-Wohl, Toxics Epidemiology Program, Los Angeles County Department of Health Services

3:00-3:15

Break

3:15-4:00

California's Response and Surveillance System for Childhood Lead Exposure

Marcos Athanasoulis and Rebecca Gambatese, Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program, California Department of Health Services

Friday, May 15th

9:30AM-10:15

Exposure assessment in birth defects studies by industrial hygiene review of maternal interviews

Elizabeth Katz, California Birth Defects Monitoring Program, California Department of Health Services

10:15-11:00

Using CATI to investigate environmental exposure to rice straw smoke

Bill Wright and Carin Perkins, Cancer Surveillance Program, California Department of Health Services

11:00-11:15

Break

11:15-12:00

Acute health effects among residents of Dunsmuir, California, following metamsodium exposure due to a train derailment, July 1991

David Hewitt, Environmental Epidemiology and Toxicology Program, California Department of Health Services

12:00-1:30

Lunch

1:30-2:15

California's consensus process on EMF policy education and research

Raymond Neutra, Environmental Epidemiology and Toxicology Program, California Department of Health Services

2:15-3:00

Electromagnetic fields exposure assessment: pilot study results

Geraldine Lee, Environmental Epidemiology and Toxicology Program, California Department of Health Services

3:00-3:15

Break

3:15-4:00

Responding to concerns about EMF-related health effects with no budget: the case of a small state

Michael Heumann, Office of Health Status Monitoring, Oregon Health Division

4:00-4:30

Planning session for next year's conference

8:00PM

Dinner at The Arbor House, Talent, OR